

Creativity in Arts
Education in Latvia.
In-service Training as a Tool for Building
Creativity

Ilze Kupca, Centre of Arts
Education and Intangible
Heritage of Latvia

KULTŪRIZGLĪTĪBAS UN NEMATERIĀLĀ MANTOJUMA CENTRS

HAIVUD

Project of European Social Fund „In-service Training for Teachers of Vocational Cultural Education”

The overall goal of the project is to increase the competence of teachers, to encourage to use innovative methods in teaching responding to the new demands the of job market needs of the modern society

The target audience of the project: teachers of the professional cultural education

Duration of the project: 3 years, 2009 –2012

Professional Cultural Education

3 Academies

16 Vocational Secondary educational institutions

145 municipal professional orientation educational institutions

Thematic areas:

Methods of teaching in

Art,

Design,

Music,

Dance;

IT;

Project management in
cultural education;

Communication and psychology;

Creative industry aspects in cultural education.

How?

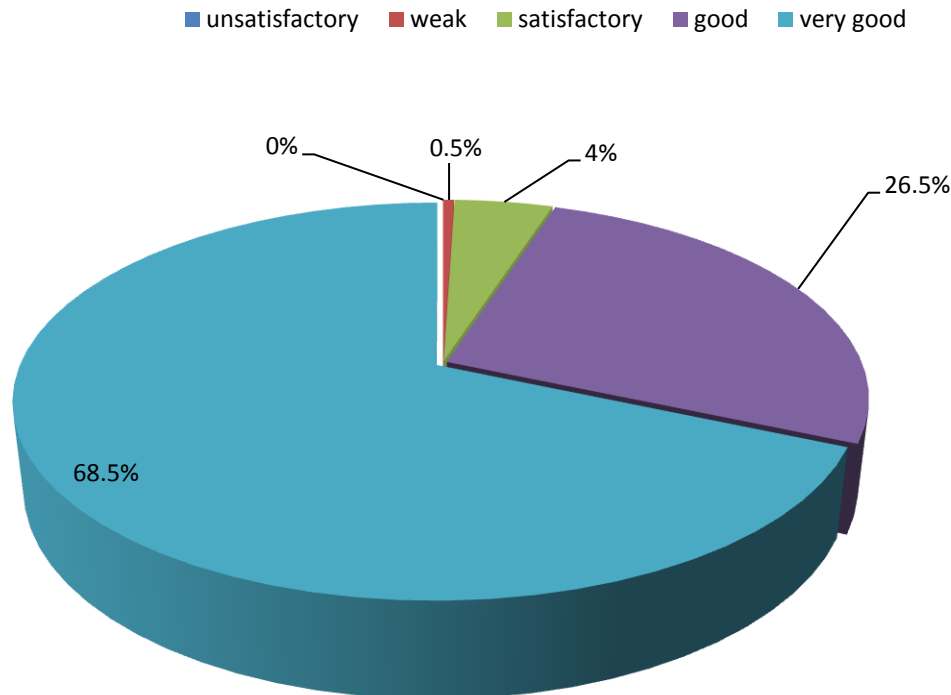

Small groups;
Interactive approach;
New experiences;
Led by good lecturers.

The Outcome

2054 (> 50% from LV total) teachers who have increased their competence;
264 courses;
36 methodological materials.

Course Rating (The content and quality, usefulness of acquired knowledge, competence of lecturers, training Materials etc.)

Accomplishments of the Project

- Innovative, cross-disciplinary approach to implementation of educational programmes led to better prepared teachers for work in modern, dynamically changing labour market demands and society needs.
- Professional network of teachers who have taken part at the courses – good platform for further cooperation as well as for contacts with entrepreneurs on the field.