

Project: New ways to tackle gender-based violence: Nordic and Baltic approach
Survey results, study visit and a roundtable: Supporting children suffering from domestic violence
7 – 8 December 2022, Tallinn

December 7th

12.00 Buffet lunch (and luggage drop) in the hotel Nordic Forum, restaurant Nomel

13.30 – 14.40 Presentations of Project and Research results, Centre for Architecture (Põhja pst 27 a) and online.

- Project results: New ways to tackle gender-based violence: Nordic and Baltic approach, Christer Haglund, Director, Nordic Council of Ministers' Office in Estonia
- Research results: Analysis of the gender-based violence and Covid-19 in the Nordic and Baltic countries, Kaja Södör, Fieldwork Department Manager, SA Turu-uuringud

14.40 – 15.00 Refreshments

15.00 – 16.00 Discussion about the follow-up activities of the Project

16.20 – 17.30 Visiting Children's House (Barnahus), Anna Frank, Director (Endla 8, by ordered bus)

19.00 – 21.30 Dinner in R14 Restaurant (address Rotermanni 14)

December 8th

Roundtable: Supporting children suffering from domestic violence in the hotel Nordic Forum

Moderator: Kadri-Ann Lee, Social Insurance Board of Estonia

9.00 – 9.30 Gathering & refreshments

9.30 Opening and introductory round

10.00 Introduction to the theme: Results of a Study „Child as a witness of domestic violence“, Anna Markina, Researcher, University of Tartu, Estonia

10.40 – 11.00 Refreshments

11.00 – 11.15 Children in the middle of battlefield. Is it possible to follow Istanbul Convention in Estonia? Pille Tsopp Pagan, Executive Manager, Women's Support and Information Centre

11.15 I Panel: *Identifying children as victims in domestic violence cases and legal regulations, (procedural) rights and services for them. Countries share success stories and challenges, 15 min each

- Sweden, Lotta Nybergh, Programme Officer, National Board on Health and Welfare
- Denmark, Mette Tegtmeyer Olsen, Project Manager, Børns Vilkår (national hotline for children)
- Norway, Freja Ulvestad Kärki, Project Manager, Norwegian Directorate of Health
- Lithuania, Ministry of Social Security and Labour representatives:

Goda Savickaitė, Advisor, Equal Opportunities Unit

Jurgita Bučiūtė-Barysienė, Senior specialist, Family and Children Rights Protection Unit

12.15 I Panel Discussion

12.40 – 13.45 Lunch

13.45 II Panel: *Identifying children as witnesses in domestic violence cases and legal regulations, (procedural) rights and services for them. Countries success stories and challenges (15 min each)

- Iceland, Hildur Guðmundsdóttir, Counsellor, Women Shelter
- Finland, Miia Ståhlberg, Finnish Institute for Health and Welfare, Senior planning officer
- Latvia, Ilze Kurme, Ministry of Welfare, Director, Family and child policy department

14.30 II Panel Discussion

14.50 Closing, Karin Talviste, State Prosecutor, Office of the Prosecutor General, Estonia

15.00 Refreshments

