More information about some of our units:

Hae Apua! – English

either mentally or physically.

Examples of physical abuse include violent pushing, pulling and hitting and physical discipline of a child.

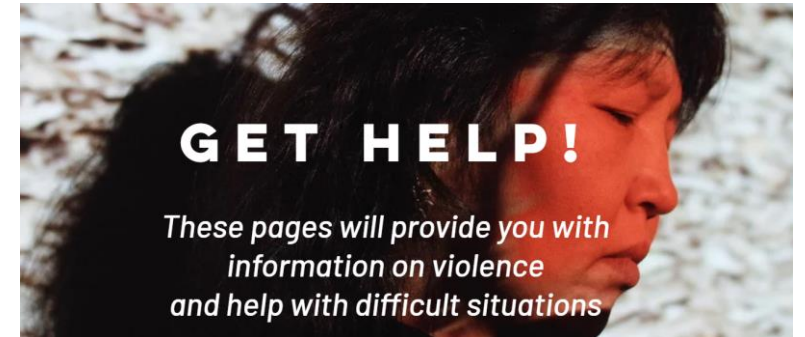

Emotional abuse includes abusive name-calling, yelling and threatening. It may also involve someone blocking and controlling you.

Sexual violence

Sexual violence refers to sexual acts that are done to you without your consent.

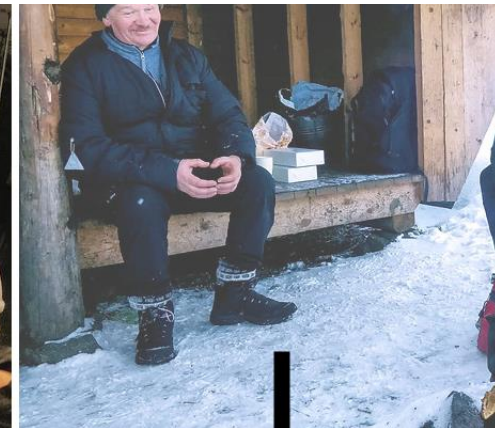

These acts include sexual touching and sex that you don't consent to.

The act may be wrong and a crime, even if it doesn't cause you physical pain or you are married to the offender.
