

Nordic-Baltic literature forum:

NATIONAL LITERATURE IN THE 21ST CENTURY: Insights and Perspectives

PROGRAMME*

Date & Time: 5 April 2013 from 10 am to 16 pm

Venue: Estonian National Library, Tallinn

Language: English

10.00	OPENING STATEMENTS Katre Riisalu, Estonian Librarians Association, Head of the Board Berth Sundström, Nordic Council of Ministers' Office in Estonia, Director Anna Enemark, Nordic Council of Ministers, Senior Adviser
10.15	The end of the book is just the beginning - on the social aspect of reading and reading encouraging projects in Sweden and Finland Katarina Gäddnäs. Writer, Project Manager at the Mariehamn City Library	Åland, Finland
10.45	Bestseller's Market - Storyteller's Future Søren Vinterberg. Film and Literature Critic at the Danish daily Politiken	Denmark
11.15	Latvian Literature and Politics Today Liāna Langa. Poet, Editor at the literary magazine Latvju Teksti	Latvia
11.45	Guiding Children to Books Johan Unenge. Writer, Illustrator, Cartoonist and the Swedish Reading ambassador 2011-2013	Sweden
12.15	About the Nordic Council's Children and Young People's Literature Prize Sigurður Ólafsson. Project Manager at the Nordic Council's Children and Young People's Literature Prize's Secretariat in Reykjavik	Iceland
12.30 – 13.30	LUNCH
13.30	A Small Literature in the Context of Globalization: The Case of Lithuania Laimantas Jonušys. Translator and Literature Critic	Lithuania
14.00	The Writing on the Wall Hrafn Andrés Harðarson. Poet and Director of the Kopavogur Library	Iceland
14.30	The House of Literature, a Place Dedicated to the Readers Silje Riise Næss. Head of Programme at the House of Literature in Oslo	Norway
15.00	Literature Time Jan Kaus. Writer, Translator, Literature and Film Critic	Estonia
15.30	PANEL DISCUSSION and CLOSING REMARKS
16.00 – 17.00	RECEPTION

* The organisers retain the right to amend the programme.

Partnerid ja toetajad / Partners and supporters

